DISCOVER THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF GLASS

Our story is more than glass

It's a thing of the heart

"More than glass displays this wonderful little museum proudly celebrates over 100 years of glasswork in the town. Beautiful and vintage hand made glass items, and our guide was terrific." - John K.

affair

At the Duncan & Miller Glass Museum, you'll journey through the ages of glass: from early hand-crafted pieces to dazzling patterns that graced homes across America. Along the way, you'll discover techniques of how the glass was made, how this artistry connected families, built livelihoods, and left an enduring mark on the region's history.
